Ill feeling was created between the North Koreans and Chinese Communists because of the former's failure to observe their agreement to supply the Chinese Communists troops with food and clothing.[1] The Soviets had to intervene and a compromise was reached whereby the Chinese Communists would supply themselves chargeable against a long-term Korean loan. However, the Chinese are still not satisfied.

1. Comment. the North Koreans and the Chinese Communists discussed the unfulfilled supply agreement at a meeting which resulted in the appointment of a mediator to resolve the differences. 50X1-HUM
